Additional support that may be available

The Samaritan's Fund is available in some instances to help provide food and clothes for patients and close relatives who are staying in hospital. If you'd like to find out more, please speak to a nurse or ward matron about a referral. Please note, this service is not available for all families.

All breast-feeding mothers are entitled to hospital food. Please speak to a nurse who'll advise you.

A Travel Expenses Fund is available in some instances, although most families won't be eligible. If parents have to travel extremely long distances to Evelina London, from Scotland for instance, their travel expenses may be covered. Please speak to a member of Evelina London staff to find out more.
