

Amanda's Story

ECHO Antenatal Class volunteer Amanda tells her story of her daughter Tilly's diagnosis, surgery and recovery.

Amanda gives some advice from her own experience of what to expect and bring with you when you go to hospital for your child's treatment.

There were a lot of wires around her, but in the middle of it was Tilly; we focused on her and got very adept at picking her up and holding her even with all the attachments.

You can find more information and support at the button below or by clicking here.